PUERTO FANTASÍA GROUP to Establish New Corporate Headquarters in Mexico and Germany

Playa del Carmen, Mexico / Germany, October 17, 2024 - PUERTO FANTASÍA GROUP announces the construction of new corporate headquarters to support its strategic international expansion and operational growth.

In Mexico, the new offices will house the main operations of PUERTO FANTASÍA S. de R. L. de C. V. and the company's creative and innovation unit VISIONEERING BY PUERTO FANTASÍA. At the same time, Prometheus Deutschland GmbH will establish a new head office in Germany.

This initiative reinforces the Group's long-term commitment to both regions and reflects its ambition to grow as a global brand rooted in creativity, responsibility, and innovation. The new headquarters will provide inspiring and state-of-the-art environments for cross-functional teams, designed to foster collaboration, sustainability, and digital leadership.

"Our new headquarters represent more than buildings - they are platforms for imagination, impact, and international vision," says CEO Matt S. Ziegler. "We are building bridges between cultures, teams and ideas."

The opening of both headquarters is scheduled for 2025 and will mark a key milestone in the Group's organizational evolution.
